Foreword

We have chosen "Baseball" as a theme for our yearbook because it is unquestionably our greatest national pastime. It is a training ground for good citizenship and for democracy in action. Baseball has become part of our folk lore and has been a powerful inspirational force in American life. We trust your yearbook will be equally inspirational in recalling to you your life on the Hill from 1955 to 1958.

Norwood vs. The World

Dedication

It seems eminently fitting that this yearbook, whose theme is "Baseball," should be dedicated to our handsome athletic coach, Mr. Orlando Scafati. Baseball, in this instance, is symbolic of all the sports coached by Mr. Scafati or under his direction. The boys who look to him for leadership and guidance in all fields of sport have found him always concerned with good sportsmanship and fair play. In both his public and private life, he has set an example of good citizenship, and he has always subscribed to the famous saying of Mr. Grantland Rice—"It matters not whether you won or lost—but how you played the game."

CHRISTMAS PAGEANT

'58 OFFICERS AS SOPHOMORES
Ross, Eppich, Pierce, Pelletier, Gore, Sansone, Armour

Green Apples on the Scene

'Way back in September of 1955, a history-making group of newly-fledged Sophomores flocked gaily into the corridors of old Norwood High. The three-year long "trek" ahead seemed endless, but we were happy at the prospect.

To guide us through our class activities we chose our class officers: Peter Sansone, President; Elaine Pierce, Vice President; Faye Ross, Secretary; Rebecca Pelletier, Girls' Treasurer; Arthur Armour, Boys' Treasurer; Margaret Eppich, Girls' A. A.; and Kenneth Gore, Boys' A. A.

In October, our Sophomore Party brought out the hidden talent in the class under the direction of our emcee, Kevin Dixon, "Moments to Remember" were made unforgettable by Mary Lou Curran, Mary Ellen Welch, William Balfour, Maureen Kelter, Elaine Chamberland, Margaret Eppich, Barbara Collins, Lilias Pierpont, James Gordon, John Griffin, Paul Connolly, Brian Drummey, Becky Pelletier, and Nancy Newman.

In sports, many of our stalwart he-men began to establish reputations, and the fairer sex cheered them on with great enthusiasm, with Arlene Connolly serving as one of the cheerleaders. Scholastically, a good percentage of our members attained honor roll prominence.

An inspiring Christmas Pageant was presented, high-lighted by Mary Ellen Welch's solo, "Ave Maria," prior to the Christmas holidays.

By spring, we were firmly entrenched in our niche at N. H. S. The rest of the year flew by, and June was with us before we knew it. We had completed a successful year and looked forward in anticipation to another.

The Pickle In The Middle

Baek we trooped in September of '56, feeling quite assured and at home, when as Juniors, we assumed a more important plaee in the seheme of things at N. H. S.

We eleeted as our offieers: Arthur Armour, President; Paul Connolly, Viee-President; Mary Lou Curran, Seeretary; Lorraine Berry, Girls' Treasurer; Peter Curtin, Boys' Treasurer; Ruth Bagley, Girls' A. A.; and Edward Feeney, Boys' A. A.

The football season saw Lane, Glebus, Feeney, Greenwood, DeBenedietis, Sullivan, Chamberlain, Curtin, Ferris, Griffin, Gore, Butters, and Gordon starring on the gridiron.

Making names for themselves in basket ball were Sansone, Armour, Glebus, Johnson, Barrett, O'Connor, and above all, literally and figuratively, Kevin Dixon.

The hoekey seene was dominated by Campisano, Baldwin, Griffin, Curtin, Lane, and Butters, and when the diamond days arrived Rogan, Dixon, Armour, Feeney, and Balfour starred in their roles.

On the snowy night of Mareh 1st, we held our prom with the gym a beautiful tropieal paradise, eomplete with palm trees, pineapples, gayly eolored flowers, and a fountain to provide a lovely atmosphere. George Malaeinski's bird cage and parrot eertainly added to the attraetiveness of "Our Enehanted Evening."

In the Spring of the year our Boys' State Representatives, Edward Feeney, Kevin Dixon, and Martin Glebus were seleeted, and we ehose Peter Kulsa and Julia Ruotolo for the important positions of yearbook editors-in-ehief.

In June, we honored the out-going Seniors with a Class Day Reeeption and we looked forward to inheriting their positions the next year.

Top Bananas At Last

At last we had attained the position of Seniors. The top of the Totem Pole was ours. When we returned to school, we were pleased to meet Masako Hara, our foreign exchange student from Japan. "Sookie" won our hearts from the start, and we enjoyed her year with us tremendously.

Our class officers, Arthur Armour, president; Margaret Eppich, vice-president; Arlene Connolly, secretary; Judith Dempsey, Girls' treasurer; Peter Curtin, Boys' treasurer, Mary Ellen Welch, Girls' A. A.; and David Butters, Boys' A. A., were chosen to guide us through our final year.

To aid and abet Chief Editors Kulsa and Ruotolo, Martin Glebus and Susan TenEyck were elected advertising editors of our yearbook; Elaine Pierce and Peter Curtin, circulation editors; and Ann Picard and Dave Grenon, art editors, with Eddy Poirier lending a hand. Louisa Honeth and Bob Ferris took charge of sponsors, and Sally Jackson headed the all-important typing committee.

Louise Murphy, as leading lady, portrayed Maudie in our class play, "Maudie and The Boy Friend." She was supported by Johanna Wennberg, Kenny Grew, Lilias Pierpont, Kenny Gore, George Malacinski, Margaret Eppich, Beverly Brown, Susan Atherton, and many others behind the scenes. Our thanks go to Mr.

Flaherty for helping to make this production a sueeess.

Our football team carried us through a fine football season with Marty Glebus and Dave Lane as co-captains. Sansone, Gordon, Marehand, Curtin, DeBenedictis, Feeney, Griffin, Greenwood, Ferris, and Sullivan held the line, through whieh only one opponent was successful in penetrating.

Arlene Connolly, captain, Lois LaCivita, Judy Dempsey, Rebecca Pelletier, Mary Ellen Weleh, Nancy Newman, and junior Susan Crawford displayed the spirit to baek up our athletes as cheerleaders should. The "Pep" squad helped out in this capaeity, also.

Our basketball team, with Kevin Dixon as captain, had a wonderful season which enabled us to take part in the Teeh Tourney. Glebus, Barrett, O'Connor, Sansone, Armour, and Johnson contributed to this shining reeord. Nicky Curran, their faithful manager, deserves credit for his encouragement and his favorable newspaper articles in the local press.

Our hoekey enthusiasts supported Griffin, Feeney, Baldwin, Gore, Butters, Campisano, Greenwood, and Curtin throughout the skating season.

Next our class presented its annual musical revue, "The Singing Freshman." Under the direction of Mr. Flaherty and Mr. Faucett, it provided an evening of fine entertainment. Mary Lou Curran, Jimmy Bright, Bobby Ferris, Jimmy Gordon, Bunny Griffin, Brenda Holder, Judy Dempsey, Nick Curran, and the dance groups and choruses all helped in its successful production.

In honor of "Sookie", we seniors chose "Sayonara" as the theme of our prom. The colorful gowns against the background of Japanese lanterns and flowers provided a perfect setting for our long awaited promenade, which will always remain rosy in our memories.

Kevin Dixon, Jimmy Balfour, Brian Drummey, Eddie Feeney, Bobby Armour, and Dickie Pellowe helped to make our baseball record one of the best in our school history.

For the first time, N. H. S. printed a newspaper called the "Hilltopper." Editors were Lois LaCivita and Frances Hurley, and co-editors were Georgianna Sweeney and George Malacinski, under the advisorship of Miss Evans. Our congratulations to them!

The senior class extends appreciation to Miss Hubbard as Student Council advisor; to Donnie Johnston, Student Council president; to Bobby Armour, class president; and to Mrs. Riley and her staff for the long hours spent on the yearbook.

We would also like to thank Mr. Hayden, our principal, our head class advisor, Miss O'Sullivan, and all our Senior advisers for guiding us through our most important year.

The Class of '58 departs now with happy memories of their three years at Norwood High, hoping that their years in the future will be as significant and fruitful.

D. Johnston P. Kulsa A. Armour

"Top of the Mark"

At the top of the roster of 1958 Seniors, heading up the three most important activities of the class, are Arthur Armour class president; Peter Kulsa, yearbook editor; and Donald Johnston, president of the Student Council.

Armour is the most athletically inclined of the three, having made his letter in baseball and basketball. He was voted most popular and best-looking by his classmates. He hopes to attend Boston College or Stonehill and to enter the teaching profession.

The yearbook editor, Peter Kulsa, is the president of the Photography Club and belongs to the Projection Club. His interests lie in the fields of science and mathematics. He would like to attend Massachusetts Institute of Technology or Boston College. His colleagues voted him best student, most dependable, and most likely to succeed.

Donald Johnston wields a mightly gavel as president of the Student Council, and is quite the Beau Brummel of the class. Incidentally, he was voted the best-dressed and best dancer, which "figures," as the saying goes. He is interested in business administration and expects to attend Northeastern University.

Vocational Boys

Row III: Woodward, Crowley, Matta, Kelley, Kelliher, Long, Granlund, Houghton.
Row II: Araujo, Clarkin, Henschel, Widberg, Galle, Carmichael, Fraser, Thomashay.
Row I: Johnson, White, Bailey, Mackey, Meyer, Ducharme, Richardson, Purpura, Mohan.

Our Vocational School Can Take A Bow

For the past fifteen years graduates of our boys' vocational program have profited by a course in Cabinet making that is excelled by no other high school in our Commonwealth. The actual experience of working under well-trained teachers with up-to-date tools and methods is invaluable for these young men, and they go out into industry well-equipped to carry on in their chosen field.

The academic program that is followed is carefully planned to relate to specific trade problems, and students must achieve satisfactory academic averages, as well as attain a good degree of proficiency in manipulative skill and technical ability before graduation. Under Mr. Wheeler's and Mr. Lugton's direction these boys turn out samples of workmanship of a very high calibre.

PEABODY

BEAUTY

High standards of performance and a passing grade on the state examination promise opportunities for the cosmetology student. Areas of work include shop operator or owner, facial specialists, manicurist, and stylist.

FOODS

Training in the commercial foods field assures graduates of profitable positions as caterers, assistant chefs, tea room operators, pastry cooks, bakers, and restaurant helpers. Employer demands have increased placement of students in many outstanding food establishments.

FASHION

Students of fashion find avenues of interesting work. Designing, pattern drafting, fitting, power-operating, and tailoring are some of the possibilities. Many graduates enjoy working in private establishments or operating businesses of their own.

DEPARTMENTS

ART

The Art Department accents color and design as applied to each trade. In addition, the department serves the school in its activities by helping to co-ordinate classroom and extra-curricula activities with artistic ideas.

ACADEMIC

Academic classes are a vital part of each student's daily program. English, social studies, mathematics, and related science are among the subjects which contribute to the cultural growth of each individual.

BUSINESS

The work accomplished by those in the business classes opens the way to interesting careers as secretaries, stenographers, file clerks, machine operators, typists, and general office clerks. Graduates assume initial positions of responsibility with promise of rapid advancement.

The Henry O. Peabody School Co-operative Association

The school year is launched each October with the election of the Student Co-operative officers. Those elected this year were: Joan Berry, president; Gertrude de l'Etoile, vice-president; Jackie Kerr, secretary; and Lois Feeney, treasurer.

The Student Co-operative members are voted upon by their classmates. Following the election, a representative and an alternate are elected in each homeroom. The work of the Board is to direct the school activities and manage the events which provide a source of revenue to the organization. The money is then used towards the purchase of tickets or transportation to worthwhile events for the students. These include the ballet, opera, plays and educational tours. The school activities for which the money is used are dancing lessons and field trips.

In this way, the Student Co-operative Association functions as a worthwhile educational and cultural project.

The Henry O. Peabody School Press Club

The Press Club of the Henry O. Peabody School consists of a group of elected students who report weekly all school news. This news is written up and published each Thursday in the Norwood Messenger. The column is known as "Peabody Personalities."

Each term, a different teacher takes on the responsibility of the club. This year's advisers are Miss Riley, Miss Morrison, Mrs. Beardsell, and Miss Page.

Members of the press club are Joan Berry, Daniel Septelka, Gertrude de l'Etoile, Gretchen Johnson, Warren Pasquarosa, Beverly Wilkinson, and Barbara Ferrara.

It is the duty of the Club to gather the news of activities from the students and teachers. For the fifth year, this publicity is helping to make friends for the school and to inform graduates of the activities taking place during the year.

Perusing Pages of the Past at Peabody

As we turn back the pages of our school calendar, we pause at the month of September. We remember our first days at Peabody with happiness and just a bit of sadness at the rapidity of each pleasant day. The school picnic at Rocky Woods Reservation was the event that served to acquaint all new members of the school.

With September soon gone, October brought with it the election of officers and representatives to the Student Co-operative Association. Everyone realized that, together with the honor of being elected, went a definite responsibility for the school year.

Turning to November, we remember the turkey dinner which is a tradition now at our school. The Foods Department served the dinner as always, and the Business Department presented an amusing one-act play entitled, "Flapper Girls."

The Christmas season was soon upon us with the annual Christmas Sale. Before we would catch our breath, we found ourselves deep in plans for our Christmas Pageant and annual Christmas dinner. Enthusiasm and warm hearts made our Christmas activities some of our nicest.

January brought a new year with new plans and more activities. First, the White Elephant Sale, fun and all profit! An ice-skating party followed to remind us that Winter is fun, too.

In April, a spring fashion show and tea were held for our mothers and their guests. This was most enjoyable, and each department contributed to the success of the event. The Fashion Department designed and modeled the clothing; the Beauty Culture Department styled the coiffures; the Foods Department served the refreshments; and the Business Department furnished the programs and served as ushers. This was a true Peabody co-operative undertaking.

May meant, to us all, our spring dance; and our "Ivy Rose" prom was beautiful in every respect. Although our last school dance, it was not our last event.

In June, the "Step Party," which is given each year by the juniors, was an impressive and lovely outdoor party. It reminded us that many happy occasions were finally coming to a close.

As we thought about our school calendar, we realized that our days at the Peabody School were happy, happy ones to live on in memories.

The 'Tween Age Group Prospers

Vigorous, enthusiastic, and glad that we were no longer confused sophomores, we juniors began our second year in "the School on the Hill." In a little over a month, we were completely organized and ready to go, having elected the following as our leaders for the year: Michael Rizzo, president; Leslie Swift, vice president; Martha Keedy, secretary; George Sanborn and Peggy Brannelly, treasurers; and Tony Grinavic and Nancy Erickson, A. A. representatives.

On the evening of April 11, we all flocked gaily to our Junior Prom, the event which we had been so impatiently anticipating for months. As we danced in the beautifully decorated gym to our theme song, "April Love," we unanimously agreed that the affair had been well worth all our anticipation.

Our last activity as juniors was the presentation of Class Day for the seniors of '58. As we left the school that warm June Day, we realized proudly that in only a few short months we would assume the enviable and elevated position of N. H. S. seniors.

The Infant Class Grows Up

In September of 1957, the class of '60 entered the Norwood Senior High School to begin the first of the three most important years of our school life.

Those first weeks of school were filled with anxiety, excitement, and bewilderment. However, in early October we came out of our "fog" long enough to hold class elections. To stand as our guides for the year, we elected Ronald Hardy, President; Madeline Zilfi, Vice-President; Mary Ann Cashen, Secretary; Marcia McGuff, Girls' Treasurer; Charles Fanning, Boys' Treasurer; Helen Eckhardt and Stephen Gulla, Athletic Association Representatives.

On October 24, we held our Sophomore party and enjoyed three and one-half hours of gaiety. When December rolled around, we proudly presented the Christmas Assembly. Throughout the year, our class was well-represented in all extra-curricular activities.

As a class, we've attained the important goal of gaining the friendship and approval of both the faculty and our big brothers and sisters of the upper classes. At long last we have grown up.

Student Council

This has been a very successful and interesting year for the 1957-1958 Student Council. Our officers have been, Donald Johnston, President: Robert Bethoney, Vice-President; Martha Keedy, Recording Secretary; Elaine Pierce, Corresponding Secretary; and Susan Crawford, Treasurer. Co-Chairmen, Brian Drummey and Peter Sansone, Joan Fairbanks, Leslie Swift, Kevin Dixon, and Edward Feeney comprised the Executive Board.

On the night of November 22, the Council held its traditional Autumn Frolic. The gymnasium was artistically decorated in autumn colors which added to the wonderful time had by all.

The Council, which helped to bring our foreign exchange student, Masaka Hara, from Japan, enjoyed having her as a member of the Student Council. She with four other members attended the Eastern Massachusetts Student Council Conference held on December 7, at Lexington High School.

Our Student Handbook was revised this year and will be ready for distribution when school opens in the fall. We feel it compares favorably with those of high schools in this area.

Continuing its interest and support of community projects, the Council sent a Care package to a foreign country and assisted in the collecting for the Retarded Children Fund.

Our meetings have been very active ones and the Council has continued its support of all school activities and projects such as: the school newspaper, Christmas decorations, sports rallies and Foreign Exchange programs.

All members of the Student Council would like to express their gratitude to Miss Mary Hubbard, our faculty adviser, and for the assistance of Mr. John Osgood of the faculty, and to Mr. Charles Hayden, our principal, for his wholehearted co-operation, and to all those who dedicated their services to the Council.

F.N.A. is a Healthy Group

The Norwood Senior High School FUTURE NURSES CLUB was organized on April 23, 1957 under the sponsorship of Miss Mary A. Channing, Supervising School Nurse.

The club has a threefold purpose: to interest high school students in personal and community health; to encourage them in finding out what nursing requires and what it offers; and to help them decide wisely about professional and practical nursing as a career. Through this club it is hoped that would-be-nurses will be able to learn in advance whether nursing is the occupation for them and, if it is, what kind of a school to enter: the one-year practical nursing course; the three-year hospital program leading to a diploma in professional nursing; or the four or five-year collegiate program leading to a degree. In short, it prepares girls to enter nursing with a better understanding of it. Students who plan to enter allied medical fields are encouraged to join the group.

The Club was sorry to lose the leadership of its founder, Miss Canning, who left to take a more profitable position early in the year.

The Assembly Committee Enlivens Our Fridays

In September of 1957, our Assembly Committee, under the guidanee of Mr. Hayden, began another year of planning interesting and entertaining assemblies. Partieipating in these assemblies, along with professional artists, were some of our own students.

The Sophomores presented an exeellent Christmas Pageant, with the entire Sophomore Class taking part. Another student assembly whieh was outstanding was our Foreign Exehange Student Program. Students from various foreign eountries, temporarily residing in surrounding towns, took part in this program. This assembly was enjoyed by all.

One of the most entertaining professional programs of the year was presented by Mr. George L. Cortez, an expert speed typist. His ability with the typewriter held us spellbound throughout the program.

The Senior Class furnished two exeellent assemblies by giving us a preview of the Senior Play and Operetta.

ELECTION COMMISSION

The Election Commission Has A Vital Function

The Election Commission consists of ten students who are selected from the Sophomore, Junior and Senior classes of the Student Council. Officers of the council work with the commission when help is needed.

The function of this group is to supervise all school elections and to assume responsibility for efficient and honest elections. It sets dates, receives nominations, supervises the balloting and counting of all votes which have been cast, and publishes the results of all elections on the bulletin boards.

The Chairman of this year's commission was Dennis O'Leary. The chairman of next year's commission will be the senior who has served the longest term. The Election Commission is a very important part of school life and its members earn and win faculty and student approval for their efforts.

F.T.A. Is Helpful and Active

In the fall of 1957 the Dwight D. Eisenhower, Future Teachers of Amcriea Club, affixed the sixth seal to its charter since its beginning in 1953. No sophomores were invited to join the club until mid-year. At that time nineteen students rcccived the covetcd invitation and bccame mcmbcrs. Our membership now totals 56.

Officers this year are Kevin Dixon, Presidcnt; Sharon MeKinncy, Vice President; Mary Lou Curran, Reeording Secretary; Faith Eriekson, Corresponding Sceretary; Mark Barrett, Treasurer; Peter Curtin, Librarian; Miss Ruth Gow, Sponsor.

While the distaff side of our club outnumbers the mcn, wc are proud to eount among our malc members the Presidents of thc Senior and of the Sophomore classes, and a large number of our best student athletcs.

For thc first time, the FTA clubs in thc State of Massachusetts hcld a eonvention on March 29 in the Natiek High School. The Hilltopper Is Born!

On November 27, 1957, history was made at Norwood High School. Students and faculty alike saw a dream made an actuality. This date brought forth the first edition of a Norwood High School newspaper in twenty years. The paper appeared on this memorable occasion without a name. The editors-in-chief, Lois LaCivita and Fran Hurley, collaborated and came up with a "Name the Paper" contest. "The Hilltopper" was submitted by James Neilsen, class of 1960. He was awarded a 5 lb. box of candy during one of the student assemblies, when his suggestion was adopted for naming the paper.

Under the guidance of Miss Evans, the editors and staff have met often to discuss the financial and literary problems facing the paper. Meetings were held, also, in the homes of various staff members. Five editions of the paper were published by the Norwood Tribune. It is hoped that future years will see continued growth and success for the Hilltopper.

Music, Music, Music!

The Girls' Glee Club, Boys' Glee Club, and Hi-Fi's were three groups that were successfully organized again this year by the director, Mr. John Faucett. There were also two new popular musical organizations formed, the Varsity Choir and the Hi-Lo's. Along with the Dance Orchestra, all of these groups provided music for assemblies, concerts, and other various school programs.

At the Foreign Exchange Student Night, under the auspices of the Parent-Teacher Association, songs from some of the famous and current musical plays were enjoyed.

With nearly half of the student body belonging to one or more groups, and all of the students participating in assembly singing, music was found to be a most vital part of school life at Norwood High School, with interest and enthusiasm reaching an all-time high.

Giants of the Gridiron

On a sunny September afternoon, Norwood High's stalwart gridders eommeneed another eampaign. Tony Grinavie's 91 yard touchdown run highlighted a second half surge that meant victory over Needham for the locals, 18-0.

It was homecoming day at Norwood's Murray Field on the following Saturday, as the Blue-and-White celebrated the occasion with a 20-6 win over Walpole. Framingham was next to feel the sting of the Norwood attack, to the tune of 15-12. Injured Norwood Co-Captain, Marty Glebus, saved the day with a lunge to block an extra point attempt.

The undefeated pigskinners trounced Milton, 40-7, as Grinavie seored three of the six Norwood touchdowns. Other players to register were Marty Glebus, Jack Coneannon, and Jim Gordon.

Asiatic flu hit other league loeations and marred the Norwood football ealendar on two suecessive Saturdays. Both Stoughton and Wellesley were foreed to cancel their scheduled games.

With health and hopes at a high pitch, the Seafatimen blanked the Braintree Wamps, 18-0, at Murray Field. Grinavie seored all the Norwood points and brought his five game seoring reeord to 54 points.

Unbeaten Natick stayed that way after an eneounter with the Blue-and-White, as the Redmen easily elaimed victory, 34-7. Finishing out the season in fine fashion, Norwood seored their third shutout of the year and seventh straight win over their traditional rivals, Dedham, with a Turkey Day win, 19-0. Grinavie seored two more TD's and Pete Sansone registered the other. Dan Greenwood booted the point.

With one of their finest seasons to date, the Norwood club closed out a highly suecessful year with a 6-1 reeord and second place in the Bay State League.

Tall Tales of the Court

Under the unflagging leadership of Coach Fred Richardson in his third season at Norwood High, the Hilltoppers had another highly successful season. Showing their basketball prowess around the league, the locals had an impressive record.

We celebrated opening day with a one-sided win over Braintree, 88-59. The Needham Rockets were next to feel the potent punch, 71-46.

Our traditional rivals, Dedham, became the third victim of the season, as all five Norwood starters finished in double figures, 91-56. Walpole also lost, but only after putting up a good fight. The final score was 58-49.

Norwood increased their BSL lead to 1½ games when they shocked Natick 83-67. This throbbing loss for Natick was their first in the past 26 games. Framingham finally stopped the locals in a thriller down to the final buzzer, 59-57.

Back in fine form again, the Hilltoppers trounced Milton's Whiz Kids, 75-55. Braintree fell once more, 65-44. At this point, Norwood boasted a fine 8-1 mark.

Needham then upset the Hilltoppers in a close encounter, 78-73. Kevin Dixon scored 43 in the next game as Norwood downed Dedham, 77-61.

Natick gained revenge for their early loss with a solid victory, 54-40. Framingham took advantage of our slight slump with a 77-70 decision. We completed our regular season's play with a 58-51 triumph over Milton.

Captain Kev Dixon ended the season with 388 points, breaking the old school record of 350.

Our Ice Enthusiasts Arouse Admiration

The 1957-58 version of Norwood High hockey was another successful one under the capable direction of our new coach, Mr. Jack Monbouquette. The Golden Nuggets gave their opponents a difficult time all season long.

Boston College High's Eaglets spoiled an opening day affair with a 4-2 decision. However, the Norwood skaters revived quickly with a resounding 4-1 romp over Waltham. Norwood goalie, Tom Brannelly, did a fine job in the nets in this game.

Next came the league-leading Walpole six, as the local icemen came out on the short side of a 3-1 count. Framingham rallied late in the third period to erase a Norwood lead and came up with a New Year's Day victory, 4-3.

More hard-fought battles were in vain, as the Watertown Rifles outscored the flying Nuggets, 2-0, and Needham gained a widely disputed 1-0 verdict.

The Golden Nuggets held a 2-1 over B.C. High after two periods in their next match, but left the ice after the third period with a losing score of 5-2.

Dan Greenwood made a thrilling goal to best Waltham, 1-0, and also scored the deciding goal when we trimmed Wellesley, 3-2.

Walpole again set back Norwood in a 7-1 one-sided contest. Co-Capt. Jim Baldwin scored the only Norwood goal.

Sophomore Ed Graney scored the winner in a 3-2 victory over Framingham.

The final two games were both close losses to Watertown and Needham. A happy climax to the season was "Bunny" Griffin's nomination to the Bay State All Stars at defense.

Looking For A Third Title

A well-balanced pitching staff, sound batting corps, and flawless fielding contingent give Norwood High one of their best teams in the past few years and a good bet to repeat for the third time as Bay State League chapmions.

Junior hurler Paul Murphy pitched a two-hitter as Norwood ruined Braintree's debut in the league with a 17-0 slaughter on opening day. Kev Dixon and Eddie Feeney each homered.

Young Guianusso, a pitching plum from the J.V.'s, hurled a three-hit game two days later, when the Greyshirts won their second game, a. 7-1 triumph over Needham. Bob Armour and Danny McKenna led the hitting attack in the next game as the Norwood nine made it three in a row. The final score was Norwood 6, Dedham 4.

Another pitching performance par excellence followed for Murphy. His five-hitter led Norwood to a 5-1 win over Wellesley High. The next day, Tony Grinavic, Kev Dixon, and Pete Dixon each homered as Norwood drubbed Wapole, 13-7.

Captain Dixon blasted his third homer, and pitched a five-hitter as Natick suffered their first loss of the season. A late rally for Norwood cinched a 5-3 decision for Coach Andy Scafati's charges. Natick attempted to give Dixon an intentional pass to load the bases and set up a force play. However, the 6′ 6″ senior hammered the first outside pitch to deep left-center and broke the game wide open.

An incredible pitching feat spoiled Norwood's perfect record on May 6. Charlie "Chuck" Richards struck out a record 22 men in the nine-inning game played at a frozen Bowditch Field in Framingham. A ninth inning rally gave Framingham the win, 3-2.

As we go to press, Norwood is leading the league with a 6-1 record. The Framingham Flyers are a close second with a 5-1 mark. Natick and Wellesley are deadlocked for third with 4-2 records.

Class Will and Testament

We, the Class of Nineteen Hundred and Fifty-Eight, being of comparatively sound mind and body, do hereby set down our last will and testament, bequeathing, to those underclassmen so honored, our most treasured possessions, and do declare all other testaments set forth in our name, null and void.

Article I—To Mr. Hayden we leave our most humble gratitude and deep respect for his patient and understanding counsel during our three years on "the hill."

Article II—To Miss O'Sullivan and our other Senior advisors we leave a fond wish for a happy summer vacation, after three years of bringing us along the rocky road to knowledge.

Article III—To Miss Ryan, a complete, and entirely unnecessary wardrobe, of the latest Parish fashions, and a stretcher for those poor girls who "certainly can't last until 2:20."

Article IV—To Mrs. Riley we leave a bouquet of roses for her diligent work in producing another exceptional yearbook. Très bien fait!

Article V—To Mr. Roche, whose affable but inflexible discipline we admire from afar, we leave a non-inflammable ear.

Article VI—To Miss Kiley we leave a remote-controlled machine that directs the girls in the gym classes who don't know left from right.

Article VII—To. Mr. Fisher, we bequeath a crash helmet to protect him from today's young drivers.

Article VIII—We leave to Miss Gow a supply of gadgets and doo-dads from Europe for the next FTA Auction.

Article IX—To Mr. Learnard we leave three dozen gas masks for those unexpected accidents in Chemistry and a hole-proof lab coat.

Article X—To Mr. Scafati we leave a year's supply of Walt Disney films and 100 pairs of Mickey Mouse Ears for the hygiene classes.

Article XI—To Miss Steele, an electric eye to catch the boys sneaking into the lunch line.

Article XII—The Senior Class leaves our energetic custodian, Mr. Thornton, a deisel-driven broom with an automatic cigarette lighter.

Article XIII—Co-Editors Peter Kulsa and Julie Ruotolo leave their organizing ability to the ace accomplishers of '59.

Article XIV—Advertising Editors Martin Glebus and Susan Ten Eyck leave a couple of pairs of cast-iron shoes to next year's admen to protect them from reluctant customers who slam the door on their weary feet.

Article XV—Circulation Editors Peter Curtin and Elaine Pierce leave permanent roving permits to 1959's roving aspirants.

Article XVI—Ann Picard and David Grenon leave their busy brushes to the Art Editors of '59.

Article XVII—Those ardent newspaper women, Hurley and LaCivita, leave their enthusiasm to Miss Evans and next year's Hilltoppers.

Article XVIII—Nancy Newman leaves her international relations to Martha Keedy, the junior good will ambassador.

Article XIX—Louise Murphy and Kenneth Grew leave their theatrical accomplishments to the thespians of '59.

Article XX—Peter Sansone leaves his reserved seat at Nugent's Gas Station to John Noonan. Long live the Ward!

Article XXI—The Cheerleaders of 1958 leave their agility and vivacity to the "chosen few" of 1959.

Article XXII—Co-Captains Glebus and Lane leave with the hope that the Blue and White can make it eight straight over Dedham next year.

Article XXIII—Don Johnston leaves his worn gavel and a course in elocution to Bob Bethoney. Or should it be a muzzle.

Article XXIV—"Sukie" leaves her delightful disposition and lovable personality to Leslie Swift, her "sister."

Article XXV—Pete Curtin leaves a ball and chain to his "live one." She should do likewise.

Article XXVI—Franny Doran leaves the bruises of hockey managing to the puck proprietor of '59.

Article XXVII—Bob Armour, our capable Class President, leaves his lofty office to that upcoming politician, Ronald Hardy.

Article XVIII—Becky and Elaine leave their true friendship to Susan Crawford and Martha Keedy.

Article XXIX—Kevin Dixon leaves a magnetic basketball and hoop to Jerry Concannon so that he'll score many baskets next season.

Article XXX—Mary Lou Curran leaves her "gift of gab" to Beverly Ferris, the loquacious junior.

Article XXXI—For next year's hockey players taking 3 a.m. trips to the Arena, we leave an ample supply of alarm clocks guaranteed to work, or else.

Article XXXII—Arlene Connolly leaves her megaphone to Sue Crawford, next year's proficient captain.

Article XXXIII—Peggy Eppich leaves her dynamic personality to Marilyn Mitchell who has the necessary qualifications.

Article XXXIV—"Bunny" Griffin regretfully leaves Lorraine behind. Ditto Dan Greenwood and Margaret B.

Article XXXV—The Senior Class leaves, though sadly, with the hope that our fond memories of Norwood High will last forever and that other less well-endowed classes may have a high standard to emulate.

In witness thereof, we have hereunto subscribed our names and affixed our seal on this sixth day of June in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Fifty-Eight.

The Class of Nineteen Hundred and Fifty-Eight.

SHOPPING FOR A JOB?

CHECK WHAT YOU WANT:

- ☐ Good starting salary with regular raises
- ☐ Pleasant work with other girls and young men
- ☐ Prestige of a responsible job with a well-known and respected company

If your list shows three checks, then you should check into what the Telephone Company has to offer you. Smart girls are doing it now, before they graduate from high school. Come in and see our employment interviewer soon. You'll enjoy talking with her.

Act now, and you can say with pride, "I'm all set! I'm going to work with the Telephone Company!"

See the Guidance Counselor at your school, and talk first with her about when and where to apply.

YOUR STAKE

YOU have cost your parents	$25,000
In spot cash YOU are worth	$75,000
YOUR ordinary lifetime potential is	$300,000

At 21 years of age, in general terms and with all things being equal, YOU inherit this rich stake to hazard in the adventure of living.

Spiritual kindness will secure its net worth; productive energy will enhance it; careless conduct will drain its vigor, and one stupid, vicious misdeed will blast it all away.

Merci Beaucoup

We wish to take this opportunity to thank the sponsors and advertisers who have helped us to finance this yearbook. At the same time, we wish to suggest to our fellow classmates and to all our friends who read this book that they patronize the stores listed in our advertising section. Yearbook advertising may reach a more limited audience that newspaper advertising, but it is much more permanent and much more handsomely displayed, and it will be read through the years by all of us who cherish this souvenir of happy high school days.
